

Ladies... Are you looking for a challenge this year?
Do you want to make an impact on a family's life?

Fancy swapping those Heels for Hammers?

To celebrate Habitat for Humanity's first women's build, the Lord Mayor of Dublin, Emer Costello will be supporting a lunch event. This event will take place in the Mansion House on Thursday 27th May 2010 between 12.30pm and 1.30pm. If you are interested in the build and would like to attend please RSVP to Sarah: sarah@habitatireland.ie or phone 01 6999611.

Lord Mayor Costello- "It's great to see women getting active and making a difference - women supporting women. Everyone has a right to simple, decent, affordable homes so make a difference and participate in this unforgettable experience."

Habitat for Humanity Ireland is seeking enthusiastic women to join our first Women's Build, "Heels for Hammers", in Romania from 2nd-10th October, 2010 (limited places available).

The build will give you the opportunity to challenge yourself, reach out to women in housing need, experience a different culture and develop new relationships. Make a difference by building homes, communities and hope.

And don't worry- no construction experience required!
